SMITH, HEARST OR X? ONLY MURPHY KNOWS

Tammany Chief to Decide as Boss—Miller to Win as Leader.

THIS IS 'POLITICS' WEEK

Democrats Need $1,000,000 and Rely on Publisher to Provide It.

HYLAN STILL RUNS HIGH

Martin H. Glynn to Offer Editor's Name, Though Not a Delegate.

Charles F. Murphy, Tammany chief, will take the Democratic State convention to Syracuse on Tuesday morning.
Until he establishes court in his suite in the Onondaga Hotel the little-bosses of sixty-one other counties will wait without knowing what is going to happen.

They have their hopes and also their fears. They want to see Alfred E.
Smith nominated; they are afraid William R. Hearst will be named.
The amazing situation is that probably 95 per cent. of the party organization is for Smith, and about half believe Hearst will be chosen. One word from Murphy will decide, and what Murphy says will go with the 95 per cent.

While the Democrats are fighting it out in Syracuse, the Republicans will be nominating Gov. Miller in Albany.
This is the big week in State politics.
The two-ring political circus in the State will mark the opening of the fight to be settled in November.

Miller Sure of Nomination.

It is accepted as almost a certainty that Mr. Miller will be renominated. There is no opposition to him and no other candidate is in sight. The nomination will be forced on the Governor. There is a possibility of a hitch in the Republican convention which may cause some friction. The Governor is insisting on naming new candidates for the minor offices.

Wood, the Lieutenant Governor; Newton, the Attorney General; Willings, the State Engineer, and Lyons, the Secretary of State, may all be dropped. They protest and so do their county organizations. But it is a certainty the Governor will have his way.

The two conventions will present a striking contrast in politics. Murphy, the boss, will dominate completely the Democratic convention with organization control as his weapon. His is precisely the kind of dictatorship which Hill and Platt held more than twenty years ago and is the most absolute since their day.

Miller will dominate the Republican convention, but as leader, not boss. He has the office and the responsibility and will rule by the strength of his mind, character and achievements in office and without touching the organization cudgel.
There are sixty-two little cross currents in both conventions—each of the county leaders has his own little ambitions and will demand some form of recognition. There will be dozens of clashes until the minor places are filled.

Three courses are open to Murphy: He may yield to the Hearst-Hylan pressure and name Hearst for Governor. He may defy Hearst, defy Hylan and name Smith. He may compromise with Hearst and name Hylan or some one else the editor picks.

The Mayor's name stands at the head of the compromise list. Next comes Justice Robert F. Wagner of New York, whom it is understood Mr. Hearst might

Hylan Married 33 Years; Advises Early Matches

"My advice to young men is to get married," said Mayor Hylan yesterday on the eve of the thirty-third anniversary of his marriage. He and Mrs. Hylan will observe it quietly in their Brooklyn home, 959 Bushwick avenue.
"If the young man wins the right kind of a mate and he is the right sort the marriage is sure to turn out happily," added the Mayor. "As for two living as cheaply as one, it is not a question of dollars but one of mutual helpfulness and encouragement built on the solid foundation of pure love. If the young persons are sensible they will live within their income. A man with a good wife and a happy home is always fired with zeal and the strength to climb the ladder to higher things."

support. Then follow Mayor George R.
Lunn of Schenectady, former Socialist, with decided radical tendencies; For-ten Eyck of Albany, Judge T. C. T.
Crain of New York and Cornelius F.
Burns of Troy.

The platforms of both parties will be radical, but the Syracuse declaration will go much further than the Albany platform. The Democrats may declare for everything and anything Hearst wants; for 6 cent fares, cheaper milk and gas, higher wages and all the ills advocated by Hearst or Hylan. Also the Democrats will rest their case largely on criticism of Gov. Miller's policies.
The Republicans are expected to go further than the State party has gone in years in pledging reforms and economies, but will not try to rival the Hearstisms.

Mr. Hearst's announcement that he intends to go into the convention and fight it out on the floor is disconcerting to his opponents, disheartening to his allies.
Those who fear him believe he would not go to a ballot in the convention unless there was some assurance from the Tammany chief that he has some prospects of winning.

Need Money; Hearst May Give It.

One of the things which is giving Mr. Murphy and the party workers much concern is their campaign fund.
They need much money to finance their undertaking of rehabilitating the State Democracy. Excepting in a few spots like Syracuse and Buffalo, the up-State organization is a wreck and Murphy is trying hard in this campaign to put it together.

Estimates are that it will take $1,000,- 000 at least and possibly $2,000,000 to do the constructive work needed if the Democrats are to make any showing up-State in the campaign. They count New York city safe and will make their fight all above the Bronx.

Mr. Hearst is the only man of great wealth now in line for the Democratic nomination. Whether he is inclined to climb in a million or so to build up his party in this State has in no way been indicated on the surface. If the leaders had hopes of a real campaign fund, which they admit they will require to beat Miller, it might make a big difference.

The leaders will confer with Mr. Murphy in Syracuse Tuesday evening. Probably nothing definite will be decided. Mr.
Hearst's managers and possibly the editor himself will be there. The convention preliminaries will be decided in conference Wednesday.

Many Native Sons Offered.

Among the possible nominees whose names are being considered for positions on the Democratic ticket are:

For United States Senator—Thomas C.
Lockwood of Buffalo, Mayor Lunn of Schenectady and Martin H. Glynn of Albany.

For Lieutenant Governor—Mayor John H. Wainwright of Syracuse and James E.
Doyle of Syracuse.

For Attorney General—Judge Frank Irvine of Ithaca, Charles Norris of Carthage and Charles R. O'Connor of Delaware, formerly State prohibition officer.

For State Engineer—Dwight B. La Du of Albany.

For Controller—James M. Power of Brooklyn.

In Erie county, where William J. Conners, Hearst manager, was beaten badly in the primaries, and in Syracuse the regulars are predicting and betting that it will be Smith on the first ballot. Fitzpatrick and Kelly, leaders of Erie and Onondaga, are Mr. Murphy's close friends and strongest allies up State.

Fitzpatrick and Murphy steered the convention in Rochester that nominated Dix.

Martin Glynn has been chosen to nominate Hearst, although he is not a delegate, and it will be necessary for some delegate and his alternate to retire in Glynn's favor. William A. De Ford, personal counsel for Mr. Hearst, may possibly make the speech in Mr. Glynn's place. The Smith forces have talked of Harry C. Walker, former Lieutenant Governor, for temporary chairman.
Others spoken of as possibilities are Francis Cullen of Oswego, former Mayor George B. McClellan, Representative Bourke Cockran and Senator James J.
Walker. The last named is being more seriously considered for permanent chairman, who, as a rule, handles State issues in more specific fashion than the temporary officer.

Even more necessary is it that the State platform fit the candidate. Because of the uncertainty about the candidate and the radically opposing views of Hearst and Smith several tentative platforms are being composed. Jeremiah T. Mahoney, Tammany man, as chairman of a sub-committee of the State committee appointed by Herbert C. Fell, Fitzpatrick and Murphy steered the convention in Rochester that nominated Dix.

Friends of "Al" Smith have a platform which they think would best help his candidacy. Mr. De Ford has drafted a set of principles agreeable to Mr.
Hearst. And Thomas F. Conway, former Lieutenant Governor, is said to be drawing up a fourth platform, more as a matter of mental exercise.
As for the makeup of the Republican ticket, except for first place, the trouble is more deep-seated than appears from the surface. John J. Lyons, "The Fighting Irishman," is not inclined to step aside and is supported by the New York organization. Attorney-General Charles D. Newton is preparing to make a fight in the convention for a renomination.
But the word that has come out of the capital is that the Governor believes the ticket would be strengthened if new names were added.
It is known that the Governor has not been satisfied with affairs in the Attorney-General's office. Mark Graves, director of the State Board of Estimate and Control, and a corps of accountants are making an investigation in that office.
